

Let's tie the knot

Lucky start to marriage

THE suspense is finally over and the winners of the Mirror's Let's Tie the Knot wedding competition have been presented with their fabulous prizes.

The presentations took place at the Hawth Theatre, in Crawley, where HF Promotions held their annual wedding fayre.

Miss Surrey, Uma Dhir, presented the winning couples with their prizes watched by friends, relatives and the audience of the wedding fayre's fashion show.

First prize winners were Vicki Bonham and Anthony Jones, from Dorking, who received a wedding reception for 50 at the Copthorne Hotel, Gatwick, worth £2,500.

Second placed Michelle Byrne and Bryan Carby, from Redhill, won a terrific pair of custom-made wedding rings by Smooch, worth £1,000.

Amanda Davey and Michael Love, from Horley, won the third prize of a wedding gown from Proposals, of Crawley, a wedding cake by Jackie Brown and bridal flowers by Zoe's florist - worth a total of £980.

Wallington couple Lisa Gadd and Dave Killick took the fourth place prize of bridesmaids' wear from Crystal Brides, Horsham, suit hire for the groom, best man and bride's father from Dickies and stationery from The Wedding Store, worth a total of £900.

Overjoyed: Uma Dhir with Vicki Bonham and Anthony Jones, winners of the first prize of a £2,500 wedding reception at the Copthorne Hotel

Celebration: Second prize winners Michelle Byrne and Bryan

Over-the-moon: Uma Dhir with Amanda Davey and Michael

Wonderful: David Killick and Lisa Gadd from Wallington won
